- c. Extra committee assignments or fieldwork may be assigned by the Executive Board or a particular committee chair in order to excuse past committee absences. Such decisions can be made by a representative's committee chair, or by a majority vote of the Executive Board.
- d. Recall is a method of removing an Officer, Elected Committee Member, or External Representative elected by RUSA from their position on the grounds that said Officer, as entrusted by the Assembly, is not conducting themselves in a proper manner, and as such will be removed and replaced. Standards of recall are thus subjective, but material in nature.
- e. Recall as such can be seen as a 'no-fault' removal from a position. Recall cannot be used to remove a member of the Assembly from their elected representative seat, but only from positions of higher responsibility and authority as chosen by RUSA. Notably, recall can not be used to remove the President, Vice President, or Treasurer, as duly elected by the student body.

2. Violations

- a. Incompetence shall be defined as an inability to perform the duties of a position to an extent that it prevents the normal operation of RUSA.
 - b. Misconduct of Duty shall be defined as the use of a position on RUSA for personal material gain.
 - c. Use of a position on RUSA includes the allocation of RUSA money to a group or project, bringing forth or voting for legislation, and any official capacity of RUSA Officers. Personal material gain is defined as accepting gifts, bribes, or personal favors in direct exchange for use of a position on RUSA.
 - d. Evidence including testimony or documents must be used to confirm such direct exchange.
 - e. Misfeasance shall be defined as any affirmative act by a RUSA Officer or member that uses the authority of their position to deny equal access to the institution of the Rutgers University Student Assembly. Examples include purposeful denial of access to public records/information, refusal by an Officer to carry out the duties of their office, and the use of individual authority to intimidate or curtail the rights of members of the student body.
 - f. Mismanagement of funds shall be defined as access and use of RUSA funds outside of that authorized by the Assembly or other empowered authority as laid out by Article VIII of the Standing Rules. Fraudulent representations of permission for accessing funds, fraudulent reporting of expenses/budgets for the purpose of reimbursement, or any other embezzlement of funds for personal use, is also included.
 - g. Omission of Duty is the failure to perform one's position as an elected Officer of RUSA and the duties that go with a particular position.
3. Procedures for Addressing Violations
- a. Allegations of any violations defined above must be addressed in the following manner:
 - i. A charge may be brought to the Internal Affairs Committee by any four (4) members of the Assembly, or any twenty (20) members of the student body.
 - ii. The Internal Affairs Committee of the Assembly shall perform an investigation into the charge(s), to be concluded no later than five (5) weekdays (when classes are in session) from when the charge(s) was/were filed unless the Committee certifies to the Executive Board that it requires more time to investigate any allegation(s). In case of omission of duty by the Internal Affairs Committee, the parties involved shall contact a member of Executive Board, or, if that fails, the Office of Student Life.

- iii. In the case of alleged violations, the Internal Affairs Committee will investigate the veracity of the claims and decide by a majority vote which charges to file.
4. Procedures for Impeachment or Censure
 - a. Should the Internal Affairs Committee of the Assembly conclude that the parties under investigation stand responsible of an offense punishable by impeachment or censure, the Internal Affairs Committee must bring the charge to an Executive Board meeting.
 - b. Each RUSA member is entitled to a fair hearing of their case and shall be in no way intimidated into accepting resignation.
 - c. At this closed meeting the individual being considered for impeachment or censure shall have the opportunity to present their case for equal amounts of time as the Internal Affairs Chair.
 - d. An initial time limit of thirty minutes in total will be set for the hearing, but can be abridged by a two-thirds vote or extended by a majority vote.
 - e. The vote for impeachment or censure shall be taken at this meeting and a majority vote in the affirmative shall remove the member from office or censure them for the time specified by the IA Committee's report
 - f. If the President is the member being considered for impeachment or censure, the Vice President shall preside over this portion of the meeting.
 - i. If a member is impeached from the Assembly, said member's representative organization will be immediately responsible for electing a new RUSA representative. The organization may decide to pursue charges against said member itself as well.
5. Proceedings for Dismissal & Extra Work
 - a. Request for Dismissal on the basis of attendance may be filed against any member of the Assembly and brought to the Executive Board by the Internal Affairs Chair, Secretary, or any four members of the Assembly.
 - b. A majority vote of the Executive Board will remove the member from their representative seat. Any seats vacated in this manner will be made known at the next RUSA General Body meeting.
 - c. Prior to bringing motions for Dismissal to an Executive Board vote, it is necessary for the IA Chair or Secretary to contact the accused and their committee chair, and try to figure out the reasons for the extended absence, and possible ways to resolve the issue, including additional committee work. Additional committee work can be assigned as a sanction by either the member's committee chair and the IA Chair or Secretary, or by a majority vote of the Executive Board.
6. Proceedings for Recall

- a. A petition for Recall may be brought against any RUSA Officer or appointee (here forward referred to as ‘said member’) by any four (4) members of the Assembly. Said member must be notified 48 hours in advance of a Recall Vote by the Internal Affairs Committee and be notified of the reasons why a body member is making such a motion. In order to carry, a motion of no confidence must pass by a 60% vote.
 - b. The debate over a Recall Vote will be considered a closed meeting. The said member(s) may choose to remain in the meeting during debate and will be allowed to make a closing statement immediately preceding the final vote. Hearings shall begin with a speaker’s list for and against recall consisting of up to five speakers from each side. No member may speak more than twice. There will be no questions for any speaker, except for those relating to the verification of factual claims.
 - c. A Recall vote cannot be appealed.
7. Resigning from an Elected or Appointed Position
- a. If any member of the body wishes to resign from their position, that member must do so in a letter or email presented to the RUSA President, Vice President, Secretary. The letter must list all positions from which the person is resigning, including committee membership, as well as the reason for resignation.
 - b. The resignation will take effect immediately and cannot be revoked once taken effect. The member must resign their previous seat if they win the new position.
8. Vacancies on RUSA
- a. Vacant Internal Representative seats on RUSA will be filled in the manner described below:
 - i. Campus Caucus Representative seats will be appointed by the Campus Caucus Chairpersons.
 - ii. Vacant Senate Seats will be filled by appointment by the SAS Senate Leader.

Appendix B: RUSA Code of Ethics

Preamble:

RUSA hereby establishes this code of ethics in order to:

1. Provide a basic set of ethics guidelines based upon the previous guidelines and examples from student governments at other colleges and universities.
2. Establish a set of “guiding principles” that can be used by members to ensure that they are acting in the best interest of the student body.
3. Codify a set of basic ethical rules that can be enforceable while not be overreaching or too vague as to make easy the process of removing members for politically motivated reasons rather than for actual conduct related concerns.

The Code of Ethics is a document that outlines behavior all members of the Rutgers University Student Assembly (RUSA) should uphold during their terms. While breaches of the behavior mentioned hereafter are not automatic grounds for punishment, such actions would be unbecoming of the offices which RUSA members hold and will be considered in the event of formal charges. For the purposes of these guidelines, Members of RUSA shall be construed broadly and include such individuals as those elected or appointed to serve on RUSA or otherwise tasked with completing responsibilities through RUSA or allocations members. This definition of Members of RUSA shall not apply outside this ethics code.

Members of RUSA should make judgments and opinions in the best interest of the students and the constituency whom they serve.

Members of RUSA should consider all potential conflicts of interest and abstain or recuse themselves when they feel it is appropriate. No member should vote on a question in which that member has a direct personal or pecuniary interest not common to other members of the organization, but no member can be compelled to do so, except in matters of impeachment.³

Members of RUSA should bear in mind that as a body which allocates student fees, all expenditures should be justifiable in terms of their benefit to the student body.

³ RUSA Members are asked to also review chapter XIII, § 44 ("Voting Procedure") of Robert's Rules of Order for more information.

Members of RUSA should be respectful towards other members, other students, faculty, administration, other staff, and to University facilities while performing their duties as a member.

Members of RUSA shall not knowingly receive personal bribes having monetary value in exchange for special considerations or actions, including voting, to be taken in RUSA.

Members of RUSA shall not offer personal bribes having monetary value in exchange for special considerations or actions, including voting, taken in RUSA by other members, or for any other leader in a student or public officer where such offer would constitute a violation of federal, state, or local laws, or university policy.

Members of RUSA shall not violate federal, state, or local laws in such a manner as to bring disrepute to the Assembly, where such actions result in an indictment, guilty plea, or conviction of a felony or a violent misdemeanor.

Members of RUSA shall not use force or threat of force to intimidate another member of RUSA into doing or refraining from doing any of their duties or exercising any of their rights or privileges as a member. Members of RUSA shall not use force or threat of force to intimidate any member of the public, attempting to do or refrain from doing any actions within RUSA, where it is their right to do or refrain from doing such actions.

Members of RUSA shall not, in the course of fulfilling their duties or exercising any of the rights or privileges associated with their membership, misuse or misappropriate any funds, equipment, or property of RUSA or of the University, as defined by University Policy or legislation passed by RUSA.

Members holding a position of leadership in RUSA shall not abuse their authority to abridge the rights or privileges of any other member of RUSA when such rights are asserted and plainly belonging to that member.
